To complete the programme a parent from each family needs to attend the 3 compulsory parent-only meetings. Part of the programme needs to be taught at home by parents, and worksheets need to be completed at home by the children. The children need to attend the 9 sessions held on Sunday mornings from 9-10am at St John's Church. These sessions will support the child and their families in their faith formation. The children will be presented to the parish at the 10.15am Mass on Sunday 19th of October. The first children's session for reconciliation is on Sunday 2nd of November. The first parent's session is on Tuesday 14th of October at 7pm at St John's Church.

I undertake to support my child during the programme and to participate fully.
